

2023 Wholality® Facilitator Training

The 2022 Wholality® Facilitator/Coach Training is an embodied deep dive into the wholeness of experience. Daily content ensures an experiential depth into each of the four main aspects of Wholality®. We also offer monthly live webinars, one to ones, business and coaching development resources, mentoring and a physical retreat in Hawaii

Training Phase One: EMBODIMENT Months 1-4

Wholality® is an experiential understanding, meaning it is an insight-lead teaching, not a memorization of concepts and data. The most powerful way to generate life-changing insights is to 'cultivate' the ground for spiritual growth. This is done by allowing daily insights to arise AND the time for the insights to be integrated as an embodied uncovering. 'Embodied' meaning, a deep inner 'knowing' before and beyond our belief system or thought processes. We spend an entire month on each aspect of Wholality®.

Month 1: Nature of Consciousness

Uncover and embody an inner wholeness as we are 'entangled' within one universal field of wholeness

Month 2: Nature of Perception:

Ignite a deeply fulfilling experience of life via insights into the whole nature of our perception (mind/body/spirit)

Month 3: Nature of Creation:

We can consciously create a wildly beautiful 'outer' life via our 'inner' energetic vibration

Month 4: Energetic Nature of Life:

We can expand our intuitive perception via a communing, guidance, and reading the field of life itself

After four months of daily videos with deep embodiment, going within, and the time for the understanding to 'percolate' in our consciousness, we then take that deeper 'knowing' and start sharing HOW what we have uncovered can be articulated in words, diagrams and metaphors. Through this we uncover your OWN unique way of teaching this deep knowing.

Month 5: How to Teach

The Nature of Consciousness and the Nature of Experience.

Month 6: How to Teach

The Nature of Creation and the Energetic Nature of Life

Training Phase Three: EXPANSION

1 week immersion in Hawaii

After students have successfully completed phases 1 and 2, they physically join Rudi and Jules in Hawaii (or live stream in) on a 6 day immersion that includes:

Day 1 Immersion

Small group interactive immersion on the understanding of Wholality® at Rudi and Jules' home

Day 2 Practice One to Ones

Practice giving one to one coaching with others with feedback and guidance

Day 3 Practice Presenting

Practice giving a presentation to the group around the understanding of Wholality®

Day 4 Time Off

Day off to relax and unwind

Day 5 Excursions

We take you to sacred or 'higher vibration' locations on the big island to do experiential energetic exercises to expand intuition

Day 6 Excursions

We take you to more 'higher vibration' locations and to Hapuna beach voted one of the top four beaches in the world!

The Phase Three 'Expansion' is not only the chance to practice articulating and working with Wholality® in groups and one-to-ones but also the chance to have an experiential journey to sacred sites (higher vibrational locations) as we guide you to sense and feel the energy and expand your perception.

On the 'excursion' days we will take you to locations like Manu Loa and Mauna Kea mountain, Mount Kilauea at Volcano National Park, Waipio Valley (road permitting), ancient petroglyphs and the beach!

The week will also be a lot of fun as we hang out together at our home near Hilo where a swim with giant sea turtles is only 10 minutes away!

Training Phase Four (supplemental)
BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT
Released at month 6

In addition to phase 1-3 training, students will have life-time access to over $1400 worth of business development resources released to them at month 6 (or sooner if needed).

Most coaching/facilitator trainings teach people how to coach/teach but now how to actually get clients or how to make a living from coaching! In fact one of our students from 2021 said:

"I have taken one of the most expensive coaching programs in the world, and Wholality® is worlds apart! No one taught me what I learned on this program!" Sarah Swanson

As well as these video and audios resources all students will have three one to one sessions with a business mentor included in this training.

These user- friendly, technophobe friendly, tutorial based videos were specifically created by Rudi and Jules for coaches starting a new business and includes:

- How to start a new business via conscious creation
- How to brand yourself and what to change
- How to get clients and increase your tribe
- How to grow a social media following
- How to earn a residual income
- How to develop, grow and organize your mailing list
- How to get your business visible
- How to get great looking audio and video
- How to do a podcast
- How to record Vlogs (video blogs)
- How to create content (videos, audios, text, etc.)

In essence, this is EVERYTHING YOU NEED TO KNOW TO START A SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS. Including live, personal one to one help.

Just this resources alone (in three separate programs) has been enough for new coaches to start earning a living from being a coach/facilitator/ teacher of this understanding.

Our credentials in helping you develop your business!

Jules was the previous lead marketing executive for a Forbes Fortune 100 company, has an Honors Degree in Marketing, and now runs our accredited coaching company. Jules brings all her expertise as a master of marketing to these products. Rudi is also an award winning filmmaker so brings his expertise to these products as well as his knowledge of having run a six figure training company for nearly a decade.

Products Included:

Training Phase Five (supplemental) COACH DEVELOPMENT Released at month 6

In addition to phase 1-4 training, students will have life-time access to over $1400 worth of coach/facilitator development resources released to them at month 6 Including:

- Getting clarity on what you are teaching/coaching
- Separating what you are teaching from what you are not
- The essence of facilitating/coaching
- Styles of teaching/facilitating
- Listening to clients from our intuitive essence
- Practical demonstration of giving one to ones
- How to create course curriculums
- How to present to different populations
- How to create a curriculum
- How to work with different populations

Our credentials in helping you develop your coaching practice!

In our career we have given trainings to over 40 different populations, from Jules talking on stage to hundreds of upper management staff to presenting to domestic violence staff and perpetrators and Rudi working with populations from Hindu disaster survivors in Nepal, Health professionals in the U.K, Business executives in the States to therapists in Russia. We have also given trainings to the National Health Service, Government Departments and to Multi-National Companies.

Between us we have also given one to one coaching/therapy to over 1000 people! In this time we have learnt a lot of what not to do! Also what to do! via a direct an embodied experience of working with so many people and groups.

In this product we share EVERYTHING! This is the product we wish we had before starting our facilitation/coaching career! It would have saved us so many lost contracts and won so much more work and success if we knew then what we know now! However, on this training we unpack, break down, and give recommendations from our direct years of experience so you can take a direct shortcut to maximum impact and deep results with your clients and groups.

Accredited Practitioner Training

This training awards an accredited certification as a coach practitioner. Our company is registered with the CPD an independent accreditation institution that shows that our course has been scrutinized to ensure integrity and quality and achieved professional standards and benchmarks. Successful completions of this practitioner training means you will be CPD accredited as a coach/facilitator.

Completion

Successfully completing this training will award the student an accredited certification as a Wholality® facilitator/coach (phase 4 and 5 are voluntary-but highly recommended if you wish to develop as a coach or increase your business revenue)

Students will also be added to a list of certified Wholality® practitioners. We refer our clients to this list as we do not give one-to-one coaching to others.

Students will have life-time access to the all phases (1-5) of the training including the business development and coaching/facilitator development resources

Some of the Practitioner testimonials

I feel so complete, and the feeling of 'what course is next' has completely vanished.

"I have attended one of the most expensive coaching trainings there is available in the market today, and this Wholality® training is worlds apart. Really! This teaching from Rudi and Jules is fresh, current, real time and engaging. You really feel like they are teaching from Source. It has been totally life-changing"

Sarah Swanson: Entrepreneur

Wholality has helped me help my clients tune in to their greatest resources, their wisdom, clear mind, resilience and compassion, in the midst of a global health crisis.

“This training has allowed me to speak to any population no matter what profession or region of consciousness the population is in. I can see how the three principles, non-duality and the law of attraction all fit into the Whole and how I no longer need to exclude anything. I can now go back into the world but talk to a wider community and be fully inclusive.”

Jacquie Moses: Public Speaker, Facilitator and Coach

Though this course I found the key to life that was lying dormant and unseen within me the whole time

I was unhappy and looking for a miracle. This course was the miracle and the turning point for me. It allowed me to drop all concepts, stop denying, fighting, pushing... and embrace my magnificent "Wholality" which brought me to my wisdom. It's clear now that the miracle I was grasping for so long, happened right there, the course brilliantly and effortlessly guided me to find the key to life, lying dormant and unseen in me all along

Ira Kokova: Coach and Teacher

I love Eckart Tolle, Pema Chodron, Joe Dispenza...combined, their teachings contain parts of Wholality, but not the 'whole' of it. Wholality does this.

Rudi and Jules' teaching has the capacity to unify it all and make it so accessible and relatable to our lives. I now feel a stronger, more frequent sense of peace and love and compassion for myself and others. The teaching automatically catapults us into living in the 'now' naturally without having to force it. This has been a total revelation to what life is!

Liz Gallagher: Award Winning Author and Coach

This is the kind of training that our world needs at this time in order to change where we seem to be heading and begin to heal on a global scale

The shift in my entire life since doing this course has been phenomenal in ways I couldn't ever have imagined beforehand. I now know I am greater than I could ever imagine and I'm capable of handling anything that comes before me. Before I took this course my life was defined by the events that I was coming up against on any given day. Now I handle all kinds of challenges with a deeper sense of self and in a much more accepting, understanding and centered way.

Tony Coleman: Master Practitioner and Certified Trainer of NLP & Hypnotherapy

It has profoundly impacted me in beautiful ways

As far as I am aware, this is by far the best explanation available as to why we do not need to berate ourselves or think there is something deficient just because we sometimes feel lost and get stuck in low moods and negative thought storms. It turns out this is just a natural part of being human and the course allowed me to love myself through such stormy seas There certainly is a need for these teachings because it is so much easier to grasp than many alternative explanations (or lack thereof) about embracing our humanity. It has profoundly impacted me in beautiful ways.

Julian Mann: Author, Coach and Landscape Architect.

“Since I completed my training with Innate Evolution, my business has transformed in ways I could not have imagined! It gave me the skills and confidence to actually earn a full time living from being a coach and working with parents and children”

Marie Arymar: Author, Coach and Blogger

'Within a year of the training I co-created a program that touched 1400 children, and recorded a video program for the public broadcast channel'

Debbi Milam: Author and International Speaker
